Jonathan Liff is a Partner in our Sacramento office. Mr. Liff joined LFLM in 2013. His practice includes representing insurance carriers, third-party administrators, and self-insured employers in all areas of state workers' compensation law. Prior to coming to LFLM, Mr. Liff spent 12 years working for a large applicant's attorney firm in Sacramento. During that time, Mr. Liff handled a wide variety of cases in both the private and public sectors. He has a particular interest in public safety and municipality cases. He published multiple articles and frequently lectures on topics such as Labor Code §4850 benefits and presumptive injuries for law enforcement employees.
