Abram Watts is an Associate Attorney in our San Jose office. He joined LFLM in 2017, and represents insurance carriers, third-party administrators, and self-insured employers in all areas of state workers' compensation law. Mr. Watts has practiced workers' compensation defense since 2010, and enjoys vigorously defending his clients' rights through all states of litigation, including trial.

Prior to practicing in a law firm environment, Mr. Watts worked as a Deputy District Attorney for the San Joaquin County District Attorney's Office in Stockton where he handled issues from misdemeanors to felony cases. This background provides Mr. Watts with a unique scope in spotting issues. He earned his undergraduate degree from UC Berkeley and his law degree from The University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law.

Speaking Engagements

- Mr. Watts enjoys lecturing on workers' compensation topics, such as fraud, to prospective clients at their corporate offices.
