Centrina J. Jackson is an Associate Attorney in our Los Angeles office. She joined LFLM in 2013, and represents insurance carriers, third-party administrators, and self-insured employers in all areas of state workers' compensation law.

Prior to joining LFLM, Ms. Jackson worked at a boutique law firm specializing in state workers' compensation defense representing self-insured employers including public school districts and small municipalities in the Los Angeles Metropolitan area. She also worked two years at a boutique labor and employment law firm focusing on employment discrimination and sexual harassment claims. Ms. Jackson also has experience in general business litigation including securities litigation, anti-trust litigation, and insurance coverage.

While in law school, Ms. Jackson served an Extern for the Honorable Judge Charles P. Kocoras at the U.S District Court for the Northern District of Illinois conducting legal research and writing pertaining to various civil matters. She also worked as a Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Specialist for the U.S. Department of State, Office of Civil Rights in Washington, D.C.
