Henna Sharma is an Associate Attorney in our San Francisco office. She joined LFLM in 2017, and defends insurance carriers, third-party administrators, and self-insured employers in all areas of state workers' compensation law.

Ms. Sharma earned her undergraduate degree from The George Washington University. She went on to earn her law degree from American University, Washington College of Law. While in law school, Ms. Sharma worked as a law clerk for the U.S. Department of Justice Criminal Law Division, the San Diego County District Attorney Office, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, and the Honorable Judge Alan Kay of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. Ms. Sharma was also a part of the Women and the Law Clinic, where she represented clients at administrative hearings on cases involving student debt, housing recertification, domestic violence, and Medicaid benefits.

Prior to joining LFLM, Ms. Sharma worked as an applicant attorney and represented clients before the Stockton Workers' Compensation Appeals Board.
