Jiblet Croft is an Associate Attorney in our Los Angeles office. She joined LFLM in 2016, and represents insurance carriers, third-party administrators and self-insured employers in all areas of state workers' compensation law. Ms. Croft currently practices in Southern California, and is familiar with litigation at every Workers' Compensation Appeals Board in the region. At one point in her career, Ms. Croft practiced in Northern California, expanding her geographical experience to several Appeals Boards in that region.

Ms. Croft is no stranger to trial work and Appeals, although she focuses on early settlement and resolution of claims, including case in chief, §132a, and Serious and Willful matters.
