Vicki N. Lindquist is a Partner in our Oakland office. She joined LFLM in 1998. Her practice is devoted to advising and defending employers and insurance carriers in all aspects, and through all phases, of state workers' compensation matters from claim inception through trial, and appeal. She has extensive experience in conducting expert and witness depositions, defending complex DFEC and LeBoeuf issues, carveout / ADR litigation, as well as §132a matters involving crossover issues with concurrent FEHA, ADA and EEOC claims.

Ms. Lindquist earned her undergraduate degree in Political Science degree from the University of Houston. She went on to earn her law degree from Golden Gate University School of Law. Ms. Lindquist initially began her legal career as a civil litigation attorney. Soon thereafter, she began practicing in the field of state workers' compensation. She frequently presents to clients and groups of 15 to 400 people on issues of interest including recent legislation and legal updates, as well as the practical aspects of successfully defending and litigating state workers' compensation cases, with a focus on proactive litigation strategies, effective case handling and early resolution.
